Conditional approval of Hancock County participation in next year's Pearl River County Stock Show was granted to the group by the Board of Supervisors.

The participation fee is low, the county budget will be allowed to allow for entry of livestock, reported Clerk of the Board, A. C. Mitchell. He did not set a maximum fee, since the budget would have to be revised to allow payment.

Financial help and cooperation were asked by the committee, headed by Paul Boudreaux, said the board could cooperate by instructing County Agent and Simmons to spearhead participation.

They complained that Simmons blocked county participation in the show last year on the grounds that if the $1,500 entry could be raised, it should be for a show in this county.

He claimed that the cost of a suitable location for a local show almost insurmountable. With him were Mrs. J. M. and Mrs. M. G. Casper.

Two more easements are needed before state approval of county's first state aid road can be granted, reported District 5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard.

The state and one-half mile hard road will be between the county line and U.S. 90, Hubbard said, transfer of $100 from the district road fund to the state aid fund for payment of laborers and material.

Any left over will be returned to the district fund, he said. Supervisors also approved the purchase of at least 200 yards of dirt fill in District 1 for the road from Mark to U.S. 90.

Small funds will be used to complete repair of the Ansley Harbor Road in District 1, a subject of controversy between Louisville and Nashville road workers and land owners on the road. Once declared abandoned and abandoned by the state, it was declared public last fall when the board decided that it had been abandoned illegally before. A private road may not be abandoned.

At McGinty told the supervisors a cattle gap installed since fall was not enough since road workers using the road could not pass a marshy area which needed filling. The gap appeared at an impasse in District 1 Supervisor Charles Hubbard said the $1,500 needed for repair was not available. Hubbard suggested the seal-fall. The road leads to the mill.

Another Edmund, Prefect Stanislaus, Succumbs

Another Edmund, beloved prefect of St. Stanislaus College, 27 years, died at 10:30 p.m. at St. Mary's Hospital, New Orleans, of internal hemorrhage. He was 65.

Requiem high mass was said for the repose of his soul today in the school chapel by the Rev. Adrian Mercier, assistant pastor of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, which was in the college cemetery.

Between 1910 and 1918 he was sent to Indianapolis, Ind.; St. Louis, Mo.; Mobile, Ala.; Natchez, Miss. His first assignment as prefect at Bay St. Louis was from 1918 to 1922.

Two years in Alexandria, La., he returned for six more years at St. Stanislaus. Serving from 1935 to 1947 at Baton Rouge, and Donaldsonville, he returned in 1947 to Bay St. Louis where he stayed until November.

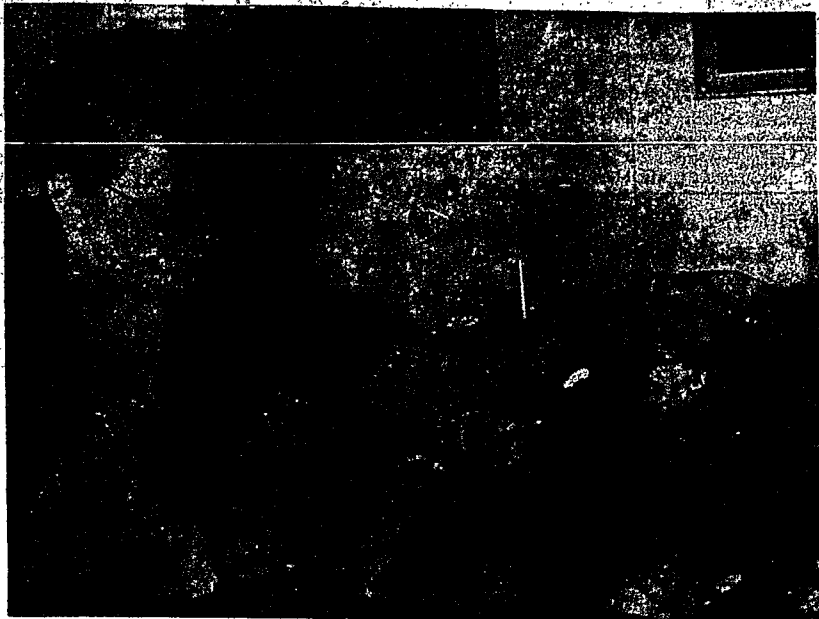

When doctors moved him to St. Mary's Hospital, he was in a coma. He died at 10:30 p.m.

FAIRYLAND—These dolls are part of the handmade collection which Mrs. Katherine Wilson, librarian of City-County Memorial Library, will use in the children's literature display during Book Week, beginning Sunday. The dolls, all representing Mother Goose or other fairy tale characters, will be shown with popular children's books. Mrs. Wilson made the dolls for her children when they were young.

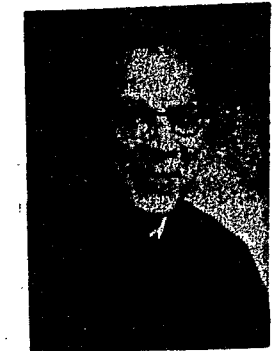

59-60 Faculty Elected By City School Board

An increase of four faculty members to meet the growing enrollment of the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District is planned for the 1959-60 school year, Superintendent J. D. McCullough told the school board at its meeting Thursday night.

Forty-nine of the proposed roll of 58 for the white and Negro schools were elected at the session and the superintendent hopes to fill the remaining vacancies before the next meeting, May 7. Two places will be added at both white and Negro schools.

New to the faculty in the fall at Bay High School will be Franklin Lader, industrial arts teacher who is completing his studies at Mississippi State University. A native of Harrison County, he studied at Pearl River Junior College and comes highly recommended.

Billie B. Gray, on the Sellers High School faculty for the last year, has been named coach and social studies teacher while Miss Shirley Gregory of Winston County, to graduate in May from Mississippi Southern College, will teach high school English. Rupert Breland, who has been at Gulfview School in the county for the last two years, will teach the seventh grade; J. C. Bishop of Mize, Mississippi Southern graduate with 15 years of experience, will direct a sixth grade, and Miss Bobby Ruth Butler of Batesville and a University of Mississippi graduate, will handle a first grade.

BROTHER EDMUND, Prefect Stanislaus, Succumbs

Active in all phases of school activities, he is remembered especially as founder of the school paper, The Rock-A-Chaw. He was director of many of the college plays and minstrel shows. A spinal injury about 20 years ago forced Brother Edmund into semi-retirement before he suffered a serious decline in November. He was alumni secretary for 12 years.

Survivors include two brothers, James and Thomas O'Hara and a sister, Anna.

4-Way Light Slated at Beach, U.S. 90

Installation of a four-way traffic light with turn on arrow signals is scheduled for North Beach Avenue and U. S. 90 according to Freeman L. Evans, executive director of the Mississippi Safety Council.

This was reported at last night's Chamber of Commerce meeting by Fred D. Quint, safety project chairman. Evans told Quint that the highway department would verbally agree to make another traffic survey of U. S. 90 in Hancock County.

Another U.S. 90 development is the meeting at Friendship House Tuesday of the Coast Safety Council, Chairman Henry Osolach, Quint, The Rev. Charles R. Johnson and Powell Glass Jr., expect to attend from this area. State Highway Commissioner John D. Smith has agreed to address this group at a future date.

Meanwhile the New Orleans Area Chamber of Commerce has assured Osolach that it will assist in the effort to have U.S. 90 four-laned from Bay St. Louis to New Orleans.

'Crackers Bombard City Police Station

Five local youths tempted fate Sunday night by throwing firecrackers in the City Police Station three times before capture by Chief Alcide Saucier and Patrolman Jack Lader.

One youth, Thurman Deschamps, 19, was tried Monday by Mayor John A. Scaife and given six months probation on a charge of disturbing the peace. Witnesses testified he did not actually throw any of the firecrackers but merely was riding in the car driven by one of the other youths.

Trial for the other four, all 15, on charges of disturbing the peace and disorderly conduct, is set for 6 p.m. Friday before Youth Court Referee JP Nellus Rhodes.

Saucier and Lader gave chase to the car driven by Wyatt after they first threw firecrackers at a police car parked outside the station. They rounded the block two more times, throwing the firecrackers and torpedoes inside the station each time before the policemen stopped them on Carroll Avenue near the beach, apparently ready for a fourth try.

New Drive-in To Open Wednesday

First Hancock County branch of a national drive-in restaurant chain, Frostop, will open Wednesday at U.S. 90 and Second Street under the management of Mr. and Mrs. John Stanton, who have the local franchise.

Stanton, formerly a wholesale banana distributor in New Orleans, has had a summer home in Waveland for two years. He and his wife moved here permanently last week.

Chamber's Dinner Has Capacity

Blending humor with usually dull statistics, Dr. W. L. McFarland outlined to a capacity audience attending the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce annual membership dinner Wednesday night at Bay-Waveland Yacht Club problems of older people and his plans for converting the Hotel Reed into a retirement home and the attendant problems. It was the largest chamber event on record.

Describing plans to operate Gulf View Haven "first class or not at all," Dr. McFarland noted there is very little literature on such an operation although knowledge of geriatrics is steadily growing.

He cited health as a present industry of the area, social problems arising from the increasing proportion of aged in the population and health for seniors. Satisfying the five basic desires of older citizens will be emphasized at Gulf View Haven, he said, listing: long life, safeguarding energies, some group activity preserving acquired skills and when necessary requires, withdrawal honorably and comfortably.

Chamber president James DeBlanc introduced chamber officers and directors and called for reports from the following project committee chairman: Fred D. Quint, safety; John A. Scaife for August Scandiff, who is ill, boat landing and launching ramp project; Henry Osolach, hometown development program; John A. Scaife, urban renewal; and A. G. Dantagan, industrial development. The Rev. Charles R. Johnson spoke on the safety program, particularly in connection with U.S. 90.

Reservations for 168 were accepted for the dinner with about 30 more turned down because of facility limitations. Tasteful flower decorations for the dining room were provided by Bay-Waveland Garden Club.

Free chest x-rays will be offered to Hancock County residents April 17, 20, 21 and 22, Dr. J. T. Maddux, Hancock County Health Department officer, has announced. Wednesday, April 22: 8:30 to 9:30 a.m., Pearlington Postoffice, and 10 to 11 a.m., Logtown Postoffice.

Board Orders Beach Clearing

The county board of supervisors this week issued a final warning to beach front landowners to clear the right of way along the seawall roadway of any shrubbery or other growth.

Noting that excessive time has been given already for clearance, the board said it will be forced to take steps of its own to get compliance to eliminate these potential traffic accident hazards.

Natural Gas Rate Hike Looms for Area Consumers

Residents of Waveland must expect an increase in natural gas rates. This was disclosed at Tuesday's meeting of the Town Council during a discussion of United Gas Pipe Line Co.'s notification of proposed hike in rates to be effective May 1. Objection will be made to the Federal Power Commission.

It was brought out that since 1955, when service commenced, the cost of gas to the town has increased over 51 per cent, the last raise in December, 1958. If another increase is indicated by the FPC it was advocated by the council had no alternative but to increase price to consumers.

The same change applies to Bay St. Louis, and Commissioner J. Cyril Glover doubts the city can absorb it even though its utility bonds have been paid. The city has absorbed the last three increases.

Council authorized Mayor Garfield Lader to install a 2-inch gas main on Nicholson Ave. from Jeff Davis Drive to the township line. Investment of $2000 from the meter deposit fund in U. S. bonds was directed and the mayor asked to appear before the county school board to arrange for transfer to the town of a lot the town bought in 1910 for a new school. The town plans to use the land for a shed or garage.

Red Cross Drive Only Half Way

Local Red Cross drive still lags at about 50 per cent of the goal despite announcement last week of threatened closing of the office here if the $3,672 goal is not reached.

"No appreciable contributions were collected this week," report local co-chairmen Robert Hamilton and W. Ray Gordon.

"The Red Cross office is an invaluable aid to military personnel from this area. Emergency leaves are almost impossible to arrange without the assistance of a Red Cross representative," they said.

The co-chairmen issued a reminder that over $200,000 was spent in Hancock County by the Red Cross during and after the 1947 hurricane. Since this is a heavy storm area, it is quite likely that the area will need large amounts of disaster relief from the Red Cross again.

Picayune Man Runs for Senate

A Pearl River County man has broken the so-called gentlemen's agreement among aspirants to the state Senate in the three-county 40th district.

W. L. (Pit) Mosely of Picayune has filed as a candidate despite the fact that according to custom it is Hancock County's turn to provide a senator. L. C. Lader and Henry W. Osolach Jr. already have filed from this county.

More fire was added to the contest for superintendent of education with the filing of Robert Frank Lader, whose contract as principal of Gulf View School, Lakeshore, was not renewed this spring.

Sheriff Sylvan J. Lader Jr. has filed officially for the newly created office of circuit clerk.

Two candidates for JP are Lester Hoyer in District 1 and Edward A. Fayard in District 5. Fayard, of 516 Citizen Street, Bay St. Louis, was in the runoff four years ago against the incumbent, Nolan Lader. Gerald James Favre has filed for District 5 constable.

W. E. (Bucky) Moore, incumbent, is a candidate for public service commissioner in the southern district. The World War II Navy veteran is a former Pike County sheriff.

Oil Testing On At Ansley Well

Testing began about 9 p.m. Wednesday on the Summyland Drilling Company exploration for oil at the Ansley field when the well reached the contract depth of 11,000 feet, according to Linton Cox, co-owner of the property with R. S. Drake.

Early results have "created reason for us to be hopeful," he said. Electric and hydrolog tests were being run this morning. Charles Tichner is the lease man on the field.

In other action, minutes of the previous meeting and the financial reports of Secretary C. O. Dufour were approved, on petition of 37 residents a street light at Sears Avenue and Finks Street was authorized, donation to the Red Cross was refused.

Clermont Water Owner to Meet Committee Tonight

The owner of the Clermont Harbor waterworks is to meet at 8:30 p.m. today with a committee from the community's civic association to discuss his proposed $5 hike in the annual water rates which has stirred heated protests.

Ray W. Planchard, New Orleans automobile agency executive, arranged through his attorney, State Rep. Walter J. Phillips, to meet with the group at the school house following a mass meeting attended by almost 100 residents last Saturday night when plans were made to oppose his rate revision application before the Mississippi Public Service Commission in Jackson last Tuesday.

Phillips called the civic association Sunday, suggested a conference with Planchard to air some of the users' complaints and later called O. E. Marshall, PSC secretary, to ask for a preliminary hearing on the application during the week of April 20-24. He later explained that Tuesday was docket day before the commission and nothing could have been accomplished at that time.

Residents are protesting the increased rates—from $16 to $21.25—with complaints of the service. Phil J. Finn told the consumers they have three alternatives: to agree to the hike, drill their own wells or get Planchard to amend his proposals.

He observed that when the firm took on the franchise under action of the 1956 legislature, it was assumed service would be improved. The utility services 345 residences and three businesses in Clermont Harbor.

J. P. Rousseau said figures requested from Phillips showed Planchard had made a $614 profit in 1958 on a low property assessment by the PSC. He said the owner is asking for the increase to make a $1,900 profit, claiming that if he added his own salary another $2,000 should be added. Planchard's accounting also shows a five per cent decrease.

Chairmen Are Announced in Cancer Drive

Committee chairmen of the Cancer Crusade, which will move into full force next week, have been announced by the crusade general chairman, Mrs. Lewis Wagner.

Opening of the campaign is being delayed in order to give the lagging Red Cross drive time to reach its quota. Mrs. Wagner said, goal of the cancer drive is $1,100.

Chairmen are: Mrs. John Griffin, publicity; Mrs. Marguerite Kern and Robin Gross, business houses; Mrs. John W. Clark, schools; Miss Melva Haas, Kiln; Mrs. Reginald Moran, Clermont Harbor and Lakeshore; Mrs. Lamar Oris, Logtown; Mrs. Gordon Romanoff, Bay St. Louis, and Mrs. Lucy Bell, Negro contributions.

Big Tract Sold for Model Subdivision

A 42-acre model-subdivision in Waveland on land purchased by George Wetzel of New Orleans from Dr. John Dicks will be the first in this area to meet FHA and GI building regulations, said A. G. Dantagan, Bay St. Louis realtor, who negotiated the sale.

The land purchased for $50,000, is on Waveland Avenue near U.S. 90, Division of the land and improvements will be made by Wetzel according to FHA specifications. Wetzel is associated with Wetzel and Wetzel Printing Company of New Orleans.

Farewell Address

Today is the ninety-fourth anniversary of one of the South's bitterest moments, the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia. The only really successful army of the Confederacy it had been reduced to less than 8,000 effectives in its infantry regiments. With its surrender the Confederate States of America in reality ceased to exist.

Believing the people of Hancock County, so close to President Jefferson Davis' last home, would be interested, the Echo reprints here the text of Lee's Farewell Address, drafted on the night of April ninth and published the next day.

Head Quarters Army of Northern Va
10th April 1865

General Order
No. 9

After four years of arduous service marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude, the Army of Northern Virginia has been compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources.

I need not tell the brave survivors of so many hard fought battles who have remained steadfast to the last, that I have consented to this result from no distrust of them.

But feeling that valor and devotion could accomplish nothing that would compensate for the loss that must have attended the continuance of the contest, I have determined to avoid the useless sacrifice of those whose past services have endeared them to their countrymen.

By the terms of the agreement, officers and men can return to their homes and remain until exchanged. You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed, and I earnestly pray that a Merciful God will extend to you His blessing and protection.

With an unceasing admiration of your constancy and devotion to your country and a grateful remembrance of your kind and generous consideration for myself, I bid you all an affectionate farewell.

As a result of Tuesday's vote in Oklahoma, shortly Mississippi will be the top or bottom State in the nation, depending on one's viewpoint. But Candidate Gartin overstates the case in saying what Oklahoma does is "no reason" for similar action in Mississippi. It isn't just Oklahoma; every other State at least permits local option on the local question of wet or dry except Mississippi, a leading local option voice when State's Rights are involved. Perhaps it's a case of everybody is out of step but Johnny. We doubt it.

Should Hancock County authorities feel somewhat thwarted by the fact that their recent grand jury took time away from many serious deliberations to rub fingers inside the county jail's stove and pronounce it dirty, let them be reassured by a recent grand jury in Philadelphia. Too lavish, the grand jury proclaimed of its detention facilities.

Open Letter To Mississippians

That the South is different from other sections of a country composed of geographical parts goes without saying, just as the North, the East and the West are each different. The South is endowed with a definite culture, a civilization deeply enriched by traditions peculiar to itself.

By reputation the Deep South, of which Mississippi is an integral part, embraces a good portion of the country's genuine hospitality, animated warmth and unaffected friendliness.

The character of Mississippians may have been influenced by being so long primarily a farming people, for their culture sprang from a fertile soil. Mellowed by a mild climate, watered with abundant rainfall, it is no wonder that we have enjoyed a more leisurely prosperity than that produced in more rugged, drier, colder climes.

Now the South undergoes economic revolution. Capitalizing on her natural resources, industrial development is in full swing.

In 1900 the South had only 9 percent of the nation's manufacturing facilities, today she has 22 percent of its plants and they are on the increase. Between 1946 and 1956 industrial development in the South rose 22 percent as compared with a national increase of only 9 percent. With one-fourth of the country's land area and population, the South now produces one-half its minerals and 39 percent of its chemicals.

Progressive Mississippi, in step with this economic revolution, with its timber reserves, its navigable waterways and its oil and gas and many other resources, faces a prosperous future.

But her greatest asset is still her people, who have long since passed through the American melting pot. Overcoming adversity, triumphing over poverty, with patience and persistence, character becomes her priceless heritage. If Mississippians can preserve their pronounced individuality in changing times, when others would have them conform to some rigid pattern, men and money will continue to come our way, seeking opportunity where freedom is instinctive and personal liberty a tradition.

The American Birthright

The individual does not count for much over the world any more. Under communism he is a mere cell in the body politic of an all-omnipotent state.

In Russia the individual conforms to a specific pattern in the social, economic and political scheme of things. He must yield to the power of the state or perish. China's communal farm workers of all ages - men and women - dress in blue pants and buttoned blouses, as alike as an endless army of ants, with no semblance of individuality.

Under the American Way of Life the individual still possesses the power of the ballot and the right to determine his destiny, if willing to use it wisely and courageously. In independence and dignity the individual is free to develop his talents to the fullest and to live the good life in a better world, either on his own initiative or in voluntary association with others.

Theodore Roosevelt, American exponent of strenuous living rather than security, said, "The law of life is the fundamental law of strife. It is only through painful effort, grim energy and resolute courage that the people move on to the better things."

Now a school of thought becomes increasingly popular - to the effect that security is free, that it is no longer necessary for the individual to strive and save, for society provides for the indigent and the indolent.

We have inherited a precious way of life in this country, which guarantees every individual more freedom than anywhere else on earth. And under this school of thought mankind has reached the highest standard of living.

No one is really entitled to security if he gains it by sponging on others, and there is no security like that which a man has gained through his own individual efforts.

There is much talk about states' rights, local rights and civil rights, but if we gain all these and lose individual rights, freedom shall have perished from this Republic. Unhitched, unbridled and unharnessed, we can perpetuate our God-given freedom to strive and save and prosper.

Zimmerle Complains of Pitching Woes

St. Stanislaus College baseball team has rallied to swamp Pass High School in two games this week after losing the first game of the season, 15-3, to Gulfport last Thursday.

With the scheduled game against Long Beach today postponed, Coach James Zimmerle plans to concentrate on his pitchers in the spare time before the team plays Biloxi in an away game Tuesday.

"We're coming along better but our pitchers still need some work," he declared. "We're walking too many," he complained, noting that the pitchers yielded a total of 47 walks in the first three games. "They've got to get the ball over the plate better."

Against Gulfport there, E. J. Babin got two runs and Ronnie Jackson one, Jim Melerine was the leading hitter with a triple which knocked in two runs and a single. Gulfport only managed seven hits but picked up 17 walks and three errors to trounce the Stanislaus squad.

Playing Pass High here Monday afternoon for a 14-11 win, the Rockachaws got 10 hits led by Jack Mashburn with three for five, gaining a double and two singles. Babin, Melerine and Gereale each got two hits.

The winning pitcher Melerine who relieved Pat Mashburn in the fifth with two men out and came on to strike out seven in the remaining two and a third innings. He gave up only one hit and one walk. For the whole game, the Pass got six hits.

Trouncing Pass High in a return encounter there Tuesday 20-6, Stanislaus got 14 hits with Oscar Herrera and Donald Buendia leading the way with three each. Jack Mashburn and Brent Seward each got two. Seward got the only extra base hit for the winners and it was a double.

Winning pitcher was Herman Jacobi who allowed only three hits. Steve Cook relieved him after four and two-thirds innings and allowed only one run in the remaining time. He struck out four men and gave up no hits.

The Long Beach game is rescheduled for April 15 here because of a conflicting track meet on the earlier date. The Rockachaws go to McGill in Mobile April 18.

Harry Chapman Mrs. McDonald Paces Mallory Team for Inter-City Race Here

Harry Chapman earned the right to represent Bay-Waveland Club in the district elimination for the Mallory Cup at local club May 23-24 when he won four of five races in the class here last weekend.

Chapman scored a total of 28 points and his overwhelming lead in the fifth race made the victory a foregone conclusion. Second was Jack Gordon in the second, both of whom took the fourth place with 17 points. Don Chamberlain was 16 1/4; Bob Rob, 14; and Leroy McFarland, 6.

Chapman won over Chamberlain in the first race and edged Gordon in the second, both of whom took the fourth place with 17 points. Don Chamberlain was 16 1/4; Bob Rob, 14; and Leroy McFarland, 6.

Mrs. John McDonald of Bay St. Louis, carding a low gross of 89, led her team to top honors in the monthly inter-city golf tournament played Tuesday over the Pass Christian Isles Club.

Combining their efforts with her to post a low net of 65 in the Calcutta tourney were Lynne Wright and Jayne Hutten.

Second place went to the trio of Louise Shoneberg, Bernice Reeves and Mrs. Walter Russo, with a net of 67. In a tie for third place with 70s were Marian Hawkins, Betty Justice and Nora Spence and the team of Jewel Langley, Ann Rayner and Maude Frye.

Honors for the team with the fewest putts—90—went to Betty Towomble, Madeline Bloomery and Gertrude Perry.

Because Mrs. McDonald had won a team prize, the award for low gross went to the runner-up, Katherine Harrell, with a 93. Mrs. McDonald also was low net with 74 and that prize went to Gulf Yacht Association with that winner competing in the GYA round. Next is the southeastern round and the finals are on Galveston Bay in September.

Margaret Lawrence, next in the eligible line with a 77.

Mrs. John Griffin took the putting prize in the nine-hole division with 17 for her round while Mrs. David Poindexter claimed low net with a 52.

Invitations Sent To Opening Regatta

Leo W. Seal Jr., chairman of the race committee of Bay-Waveland Yacht Club, said today that invitations to participate in the opening regatta May 2-3 have been sent to the 15-member clubs of the Gulf Yachting Association.

In addition to the fish class series, a special series for lightnings and penguins has been scheduled, Seal announced.

A number of social functions are being planned for the visiting yachtsmen.

Bay High Readies For Track Meet

The district track meet April 16 at Perkinston will be the opening event on the spring calendar for Bay High School's track team, according to Coach Paul Lamphere.

Among those scheduled to participate are Barry Stephens who will run the 4:40; Tommy Johnston who will go after the low and high hurdles; Leo Grecco, shotput; Jeffery Schultz, the mile and 8:30 relay; Floyd Christy, mile and mile relay; Bill Watts, high jump and 8:30; Burt Taylor, Gregory Necaise and Henry Conley, 100-yard dash and the 4:40 relay.
